Travel and tourism is one of the world's largest industries. "It surpasses that of export, food products or automobiles," according to the United Nations World Tourism Organization. Whether you're a meetings and hospitality professional or a supplier to the hospitality industry, you are aware of the important role our industry plays in the American economy. Today, organizations are seeking to design a sustainable, strategic plan that will guarantee future success.

The National Coalition of Black Meetings Planners Investment Portfolio was designed to provide you with education, networking and trackable data. The Annual Conference will provide relevant educational content and networking opportunities for meetings and hospitality professionals and continue to fuel the pipeline for qualified leaders in the hospitality industry. The success and long-term impact of our efforts will depend, in part, on the powerful partnerships we establish with organizations like yours.

NCBMP is committed to improving the quality and ROI of the meetings, conferences and conventions that are managed by its members, which includes professional trade organizations, fraternities, sororities, community service organizations and corporations. Founded 35 years ago, NCBMP was created as a non-profit organization dedicated to elevating hospitality professionals, meeting planners and association executives within the African-American markets throughout the country. By creating innovative educational content, eclectic networking experiences, we are directly elevating and impacting the industry.

Clearly, this is an ambitious plan with goals that will significantly affect not only our nation's education and business communities, but our society as a whole. Our success, however, depends on the investment of time and resources of those businesses and organizations that will ultimately enjoy the benefits that a select number of well-trained industry professionals will deliver. Now is the time! Become an Investment Partner by contributing to NCBMP's efforts to advance African-Americans in the meetings and hospitality industry.

We are excited to announce our Fourth Annual State of Black Tourism will be held in Washington, D.C., on September 12, 2018 and our Fall Conference will take place November 28 – December 1, 2018, in the beautiful city of New Orleans. Attached you will find our Investment Opportunities and Benefits for both events, as well as a Conference Commitment form.

We look forward to partnering with you!
