Each year, hundreds of orthopedic and musculoskeletal professionals and their teams from practices of all sizes and with a range of experience levels gather together to exchange ideas, enhance product knowledge, and stay current on the latest industry issues that affect them every day. During the AAOE Annual Conference, they learn key insights, trends, and best practices that directly impact their jobs. On the trade show floor and during conference events, they connect with vendors like you as they look for ways to improve their practices.

Keynote Speakers

Keynote speakers are a big conference draw, so they are promoted heavily throughout pre-event promotions, along with your name as the sponsor. Onsite, in addition to sponsor signage at the event, your logo will be prominently displayed on the dais above the speaker, and you'll have the opportunity to introduce them onstage.

Rachel Druckenmiller

Opening Keynote Speaker - $37,500

Reset Your Mindset: Reflect, Reframe, Recalibrate

The past few years have served as a catalyst for many of us to pause and reflect, to reinvent and reimagine, and to show up more intentionally in our lives and in our work. In the midst of continued change, it's never been more important for us to reconnect to what matters most, both personally and professionally. We can start doing that by accessing the power of curiosity within ourselves and with each other to create an inspired, aligned, and compelling future.

Powerful questions ignite insight and help us gain clarity about what could be, so we don't feel so stuck in what is or what has been. Tapping into the combination of curiosity and clarity gives us the confidence and courage to unleash purpose, passion, and potential in ourselves and in the people we lead and serve. Now, more than ever before, we need that kind of fresh perspective and motivation, so we can have more impact and influence through our work.

Ted Ma

Closing Keynote Speaker - $17,500

How Great Leaders Bring Out the Best in Others

We all have someone who made a significant impact on our careers. For most of us, it was a mentor who challenged the way we see ourselves and how we show up in the world. As a result, they become "the one" for us. Your ability to be the one for others doesn't happen by chance; it is the result of a specific mindset and set of behaviors. Drawing on insights from a proprietary national research study, this interactive program will teach you how to be the one, regardless of your title. Participants will be challenged to rethink their role as leaders, change the way they interact with team members, and learn how to create a culture that people never want to leave.
